

CONTENTS.

---

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
Situation of the County—Indian Names—La Tour Grant—Cornwallis at Merliguesche—Township of Lunenburg—Obtaining Settlers from Germany—Arrivals at Halifax—Description of Lüneburg in the Fatherland—Opinions about Germany and the Germans - - - - -	17-26

CHAPTER II.

Arrival at Lunenburg—Captains Cobb and Rous—First Birth—Military and Civil Authority—Block-houses—Rebellion—Commons—Stock, Houses, Huts, Crops, Mills, and Vehicles—First Ferry—First Shop - - - - -	27-42
--	-------

CHAPTER III.

Town Plot—Allotments and Registry of Land—First Deeds—Letters, Petitions, Orders, and Official Returns—Boundaries of Township—Jessen Expedition—Boundaries of County—Townships established—Bounties—Settlers and Stock—First Civil List—Governor's Praise of Germans—Inhabitants, Stock and Crops—Governor's Letter to Earl of Dartmouth—Inventory of Property of C. B. Zouberbuhler - - - - -	43-59
--	-------

CHAPTER IV.

Councillor Creighton—Bulkeley's Letter and Orders—Leave Asked to Dig Coal in Cape Breton—First Court-house—Block-houses—Captures—Impressment—Invasion of Lunenburg—Grant of Township—Militia Officers named in German Almanac—Lieutenant Rudolf's Letter to Queen Victoria's father—Capture of Vessels—Amended County Line - - - - -	60-79
--	-------

CHAPTER V.

Churches of different Denominations in the Town of Lunenburg, and Notices of Clergymen who have resided there - - -	80-106
---	--------

	PAGE
CHAPTER VI.
Biographical Notices of prominent persons, other than Clergymen, who have lived in the Town of Lunenburg - - - -	107-124
CHAPTER VII.
Distinguished Visitors and Public Celebrations—First Mayor and Council—Town of Lunenburg - - - -	125-130
CHAPTER VIII.
Kingsburg, Ritcey's Cove, and adjacent Settlements - -	131-134
CHAPTER IX.
The Ovens, and Gold Discoveries there, with accounts of other Settlements - - - -	135-139
CHAPTER X.
Cross Island, near the Entrance to Lunenburg Harbor, and other Islands in the same vicinity - - - -	140-142
CHAPTER XI.
Early Settlement at Mahone Bay, with History of its Churches and Clergymen, and other matters of interest—Indian Point	143-152
CHAPTER XII.
Northfield—Maitland—Riversdale—New Cornwall - - -	153-155
CHAPTER XIII.
New Germany—First Settlers—Churches—Clergymen and others who have resided there—Manufactories - - - -	156-165
CHAPTER XIV.
Arrival of l'Escarbot, French Lawyer and Poet, at La Hève, in 1607—Subsequent Settlement of French near Getson's Cove, with account of Fort, Garrison, and Chapel - -	166-180
CHAPTER XV.
British Settlement in the Township of New Dublin - - -	181-187

CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER XVI.

	PAGE
Bridgewater—Its Early Settlement—Churches and other buildings—Clergymen—Manufactures . . . . .	188-210

CHAPTER XVII.

Biographical Notices of Persons who have Conducted Business and Resided at Bridgewater . . . . .	211-222
--	---------

CHAPTER XVIII.

Settlement at Hebb's Mills—Gold Discovered at Mellipsigit . . . . .	223-225
---	---------

CHAPTER XIX.

La Have River—Its Rise, and Course to the Ocean—Poems on the River, by different authors . . . . .	226-235
--	---------

CHAPTER XX.

La Have Iron-bound Island . . . . .	236-239
-------------------------------------	---------

CHAPTER XXI.

Settlements and Places between Getson's Cove and Vogler's Cove—Churches and Clergymen—Biographical Notices . . . . .	240-252
--	---------

CHAPTER XXII.

Arrival at Chester of Settlers from Boston, August, 1759—Grant of Township—Registry of lots—Progress made . . . . .	253-277
---	---------

CHAPTER XXIII.

Churches Built at Chester—Clergymen of Different Denominations . . . . .	278-291
--	---------

CHAPTER XXIV.

Biographical notices of persons who have lived at Chester . . . . .	292-299
---	---------

CHAPTER XXV.

Islands in Chester Bay, and incidents connected with the same, including searches made for "Kidd's treasure" at Oak Island . . . . .	300-315
--	---------

	PAGE
CHAPTER XXVI.
Blandford—Bayswater—Aspotogon—Deep Cove—Mill Cove— Fox Point - - - - -	316-320
CHAPTER XXVII.
New Ross—Its Settlement by Disbanded Soldiers—Rations allowed—Churches and Clergymen—Settlement at Sherwood	321-330
CHAPTER XXVIII.
Rivers in the Township of Chester—Gold Deposits at Gold River	331-334
CHAPTER XXIX.
Scenery in different parts of the County - - - - -	335-340
CHAPTER XXX.
The Aborigines—Murders and Scalpings by them—Burial-places —Interesting Incidents - - - - -	341-351
CHAPTER XXXI.
Diary of Rev. James Munroe, and Recollections of Several Aged People - - - - -	352-378
CHAPTER XXXII.
Remarkable Instances of Longevity—Epitaphs—Old German Bibles - - - - -	379-390
CHAPTER XXXIII.
Baptisms, Weddings, and Funerals in Early Times - - -	391-395
CHAPTER XXXIV.
Education—Progress made in different parts of the County— Teachers—Hardships endured by some of them - -	396-406
CHAPTER XXXV.
Temperance—Early and continued efforts to secure Total Abstinence—Temperance Societies organized and at work in the County - - - - -	407-412

CONTENTS.

XV

CHAPTER XXXVI.

	PAGE
Geological and Mineralogical Deposits, with Reports on the same	413-417

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Natural History of the County—Mammals, Birds, Reptiles, Molluscs, Fishes—Flowering and Flowerless Plants - -	418-430
---	---------

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

Census Returns from earliest dates, with Comparative State- ments - - - - -	431-440
--	---------

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Men returned, appointed, and called as Representatives in Parliament, from 1758 to the present time—Wardens and Councillors for Lunenburg and New Dublin, and Chester -	441-447
---	---------

CHAPTER XL.

Agriculture and Horticulture—Work done by Men and Women in the County, and Improvements made from time to time in the Raising of Crops and Fruits - - - - -	448-460
---	---------

CHAPTER XLI.

Fisheries—Kinds and quantities of Fish caught—Vessels, Boats, and Men engaged—Deep Sea and other Fishing - - -	461-471
---	---------

CHAPTER XLII.

Manufactures in the Town of Lunenburg, with Vessels and Boats Built there and elsewhere in the County - -	472-484
--	---------

CHAPTER XLIII.

Exports and Imports - - - - -	485-490
-------------------------------	---------

CHAPTER XLIV.

Celebration at Bridgewater of the Jubilee Year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria - - - - -	491-493
---	---------

	PAGE
CHAPTER XLV.
Tragical events which have happened in the County - - -	494-508
CHAPTER XLVI.
Tales of Shipwreck suffered by Mariners and others belonging to the County—Chase and explosion of “Young Teazer” -	509-521
CHAPTER XLVII.
Rescues of Persons in Peril on the Sea, and Presentations made for Deeds of Bravery, and as Tokens of Esteem - - -	522-531
CHAPTER XLVIII.
History of the Nova Scotia Central Railway - - -	532-539
CHAPTER XLIX.
Visit of New England Journalists to the County in 1891 - -	540-545
CHAPTER L.
Lighthouses—Rivers and Lakes—Heights of different places— Tables of distances with old routes of travel - - -	546-552
CHAPTER LI.
Miscellanea - - - - -	553-575